Do you love a parade?

Ever since Walt Disney declared that there would be a parade every single day at Disneyland, these stop-you-in-your-tracks presentations have become a staple of major theme parks all over the world. We've built full-scale parade floats and live entertainment rolling stock for shows that entertain thousands of guests daily. We specialize in character-driven parades, and have built a large number of animatronic and puppet characters to ride aboard these spectacular floats. Even if they're not part of a full-scale parade, our rolling stock and characters bring smiles to audiences of all ages —day or night!

- Full-scale parade floats & barges
- Animatronic & static characters for floats
- Rolling stock (theme carts, wagons, etc.)
