Selling something amazing?

Time and again, research has proven that potential customers react very positively to retail and dining environments that are creatively customized or themed to set them apart from the crowd. Consumers have thousands of options, and savvy retailers know that a hook can sometimes come in an interesting package. We've built hundreds of animatronics and scenic elements for shops and restaurants all over the world—from almost 400 Chuck E. Cheese animatronics, to dozens of installations for FAO Schwarz toy stores throughout the United States.
